CRIMINAL NO. 11-20293

HON. ARTHUR J. TARNOW

-VS-

OFFENSE: 18 U.S.C. § 1954

D-2 WALTER RALPH MABRY,

STATUTORY MAXIMUM PENALTIES:

Defendant.

Up to 3 years in prison

Up to $250,000 fine

Up to 1 year of Supervised Release

RULE 11 PLEA AGREEMENT

Pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, defendant Walter Ralph Mabry and the government agree as follows:

1. GUILTY PLEA

A. Count of Conviction

Defendant will enter a plea of guilty to the sole count of the Superseding Information, which charges him with agreeing to receive a thing of value while being a trustee and fiduciary of an employee pension plan because of his actions concerning the operations of the employee pension plan, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1954, and for which the penalty is a maximum of up to three years imprisonment, a maximum fine of up to $250,000, a special assessment of $100, and up to one year of supervised release.

B. Elements of Offense

The elements of the offense that the government would need to prove beyond a reasonable doubt at trial are:

From April 2004 through September 2006, in the Eastern District of Michigan, and elsewhere the defendant did: (1) with respect to an employee pension benefit plan subject to Title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974; (2) receive, or agree to receive, a kickback, gift, or thing of value; (3) while a trustee and fiduciary of the employee pension benefit plan; (4) because of his actions or decisions relating to matters before the employee pension benefit plan; and (5) the defendant acted knowingly and unlawfully.

C. Factual Basis for Guilty Plea

The following facts are a sufficient and accurate basis for the defendant's guilty plea:

From April 2004 through September 2006, the defendant was the Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the Michigan Regional Council of Carpenters ("MRCC"), a labor union representing carpenters in the state of Michigan. Sometime in or about 1955, the MRCC had sponsored and created a pension fund known as the Carpenters Pension Trust Fund – Detroit and Vicinity. Since at least January 2001 and up through September 2006, the defendant served as the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Carpenters Pension Trust Fund. The Carpenters Pension Trust Fund was an employee pension benefit plan subject to the provisions of Title I of ERISA. The MRCC and the Carpenters Pension Trust Fund were both headquartered in the Eastern District of Michigan. Between April 2004 and September 2006, John Orecchio was an executive at AA Capital Partners, an investment manager for the Carpenters Pension Trust Fund who had been retained by the Trustees of the fund. During that same period of time, Joseph Roxlyn Jewett was the President of J&R Ventures, a company that provided consulting services to AA Capital Partners in connection with the Carpenters Pension Trust Fund's investment in a gambling casino in Biloxi, Mississippi. Between April 2004 and September 2006, the defendant received more than $5,000, but less than $10,000, in hotel and entertainment expenses from Orecchio and Jewett. Orecchio and Jewett paid for the defendant's hotel and entertainment expenses because of the defendant's position and duties in the MRCC and on the Board of Trustees of the Carpenters Pension Trust Fund. The monies paid for the expenses did not come from the MRCC or the pension fund, but came from the personal funds of Jewett and Orecchio or from the funds of J&R Ventures and AA Capital Partners. The MRCC, the Carpenters Pension Trust Fund, and the Millwrights Supplemental Pension Plan did not lose any money as a result of the payment of expenses by Orecchio and Jewett as set forth above. The defendant asserts that he did not regard the payment of his expenses by Orecchio and Jewett as kickbacks, but instead he believed that they were comping his expenses in Las Vegas because of his positions in the MRCC.

D. Disputed Sentencing Issue

Although not necessary to establish the factual basis for a guilty plea to a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1954, the government further contends, and the defendant denies, that as part of the relevant conduct for the defendant's offense, the defendant agreed to receive from Orecchio and Jewett a $266,000 investment in the Xyience Company because of the defendant's actions in connection with AA Capital Partners and J&R Ventures. The parties acknowledge that the government has the burden of proof in establishing this sentencing factor, and that this issue will have to be resolved at the time of the sentencing hearing in this case.

The parties are in agreement that the defendant did not receive any investment monies or any consideration from the Xyience Company.

2. SENTENCING GUIDELINES

A. Standard of Proof

The Court will find sentencing factors by a preponderance of the evidence.

B. Agreed Guideline Range

The parties do not agree as to the applicable sentencing guideline range.

The government recommends that the Court determine that the defendant's guideline range is 15 to 21 months (one year and three months to one year and nine months), as set forth on the attached worksheets. The defendant recommends that the Court determine that his guideline range is 0 to 6 months, as set forth on the attached worksheet addendum. The Court is not bound by either party's recommendation concerning the guideline range, and defendant understands that he will have no right to withdraw his guilty plea if the Court does not follow his recommendation.

If the Court finds:

a) that defendant's criminal history category is higher than reflected on the attached worksheets, or

b) that the offense level should be higher because, after pleading guilty, defendant made any false statement to or withheld information from his probation officer; otherwise demonstrated a lack of acceptance of responsibility for his offense(s); or obstructed justice or committed any crime, and if any such finding results in a guideline range higher than is recommended by the parties, then the higher guideline range becomes each party's recommended range. However, if the Court finds that defendant is a career offender, an armed career criminal, or a repeat and dangerous sex offender as defined under the sentencing guidelines or other federal law, and that finding is not already reflected in the attached worksheets, this paragraph does not authorize a corresponding increase in the agreed range.

Neither party may take a position concerning the applicable guidelines that is different than any position of that party as reflected in the attached worksheets, except as necessary to the Court's determination regarding subsections a) and b), above.

3. SENTENCE

The Court will impose a sentence pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553, and in doing so must consider the sentencing guideline range.

A. Imprisonment

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(C), the sentence of imprisonment in this case may not exceed the top of the sentencing guideline range, that is, the guideline range found by the Court in resolving the dispute between the parties as described in Paragraph 2B.

B. Supervised Release

A term of supervised release, if imposed, follows the term of imprisonment. There is no agreement on supervised release. In other words, the Court may impose any term of supervised release up to the statutory maximum term, which in this case is 1 year. The agreement concerning imprisonment described above in Paragraph 3A does not apply to any term of imprisonment that results from any later revocation of supervised release.

C. Special Assessment

Defendant will pay a special assessment of $100 and must provide the government with a receipt for the payment before sentence is imposed.

D. Fine

The Court may impose a fine on each count of conviction in any amount up to $250,000.

E. Concurrent Sentence

Pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 5G1.3(c), the government agrees to recommend that the sentence in this case run concurrently to the sentence that the defendant is currently serving in Case No. 04-80977-Friedman as discussed between the counsel of the parties.

4. OTHER CHARGES

If the Court accepts this agreement, the government will not bring additional charges against the defendant based on any of the conduct reflected in the attached worksheets or in anyway connected to the Biloxi casino project or any other matter concerning John Orecchio, AA Capital Partners, Joseph Jewett, or J&R Ventures.

5. Each Party's Right To Withdraw From This Agreement

The government may withdraw from this agreement if the Court finds the correct guideline range to be different than is determined by Paragraph 2B.

Defendant may withdraw from this agreement, and may withdraw his guilty plea, if the Court decides to impose a sentence higher than the maximum allowed by Part 3. This is the only reason for which defendant may withdraw from this agreement. The Court shall advise defendant that if he does not withdraw his guilty plea under this circumstance, the Court may impose a sentence greater than the maximum allowed by Part 3.

6. WAIVER OF RIGHT TO APPEAL

If the sentence imposed does not exceed the maximum allowed by Part 3 of this agreement, defendant waives any right he has to appeal his conviction or sentence. If the sentence imposed is within the guideline range determined by Paragraph 2B the government agrees not to appeal the sentence, but retains its right to appeal any sentence below that range.

7. CONSEQUENCES OF WITHDRAWAL OF GUILTY PLEA OR VACATION OF CONVICTION

If defendant is allowed to withdraw his guilty plea or if any conviction entered pursuant to this agreement is vacated, the Court shall, on the government's request, reinstate any charges that were dismissed as part of this agreement. If additional charges are filed against defendant within six months after the date the order vacating defendant's conviction or allowing him to withdraw his guilty plea becomes final, which charges relate directly or indirectly to the conduct underlying the guilty plea or to any conduct reflected in the attached worksheets, defendant waives his right to challenge the additional charges on the ground that they were not filed in a timely manner, including any claim that they were filed after the limitations period expired.

8. PARTIES TO PLEA AGREEMENT

Unless otherwise indicated, see Paragraph 11, this agreement does not bind any government agency except the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Michigan.

9. SCOPE OF PLEA AGREEMENT

This agreement, which includes all documents that it explicitly incorporates, is the complete agreement between the parties. It supersedes all other promises, representations, understandings, and agreements between the parties concerning the subject matter of this plea agreement that are made at any time before the guilty plea is entered in court. Thus, no oral or written promises made by the government to defendant or to the attorney for defendant at any time before defendant pleads guilty are binding except to the extent they have been explicitly incorporated into this agreement.

10. STANDARD OF PROOF

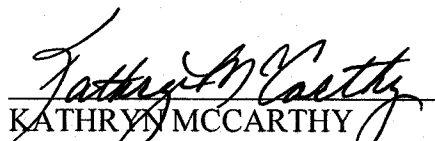

The parties recognize that under current Sixth Circuit precedent, the Court can find sentencing factors by a preponderance of the evidence at a sentencing hearing. Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraphs 1.D. and 2.A., the defendant may seek to challenge sentencing findings by the Court should this Sixth Circuit precedent be overturned by a decision of the Supreme Court.

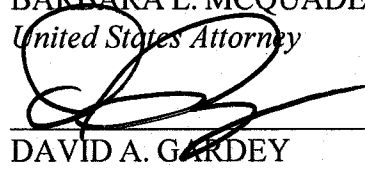

11. PENSION ISSUES

As part of this agreement, the Department of Labor--Office of Inspector General shall supply a written document agreeing that it will not initiate an investigation of, nor seek the seizure of, the defendant's pension that he receives from the MRCC and his International Business Agent's Pension, as a result of any of the conduct reflected in the attached worksheets or in anyway connected to the Biloxi casino project, and that the monies used for payment of expenses as set forth above in Paragraph 1.C. did not come from the Carpenters Pension Trust Fund or the MRCC.

12. ACCEPTANCE OF AGREEMENT BY DEFENDANT

This plea offer expires unless it has been received, fully signed, in the Office of the United States Attorney by 5:00 P.M. on March 21, 2011. The government reserves the right to modify or revoke this offer at any time before defendant pleads guilty.
